

Partner Oncology Announces Rebranding, Changes Name to Panacea Oncology

January 3, 2022

Puyallup, Wash., Jan. 3, 2022 – Partner Oncology, serving Puyallup and the Lakewood areas in oncology and hematology, recently rebranded the practice name to Panacea Oncology (Panacea). Panacea provides personalized and compassionate care, offering cancer patients in Pierce County the most advanced treatments of the highest quality.

The name was changed to show the wider scope of value and services offered. Panacea means a solution or remedy for all diseases which embodies Panacea's mission of innovative care based on research and evidence-based treatment.

Panacea Medical Oncologist Dr. Joseph Ye said, "The available resources we have in this constantly changing world of complex diseases of oncology and blood disorders allows us to better serve our patients. We felt it was necessary to rebrand our practice to better represent the exceptional cancer care we provide right here in the communities where our patients live."

In addition to the name change Panacea also introduced a new logo design which features all the colors from the cancer awareness ribbons. These colors represent all the indications of cancer.

AON Chief Executive Officer Todd Schonherz said, "The new Panacea identity better aligns with the clinical services offered while making a more memorable impression."

Panacea Oncology Medical Oncologists Drs. Joseph Ye, Xinda David Wang and Weigang Tong are part of the American Oncology Network, LLC (AON)—a leading physician network helping community oncologists have greater access to more resources so patients get top-level cancer care within their communities.

About American Oncology Network, LLC: AONcology.com

American Oncology Network, LLC (AON) is an alliance of physicians and seasoned healthcare leaders partnering to ensure the long-term success of community oncology. Launched in 2018, the rapidly expanding AON network represents 105 physicians and 79 nurse practitioners and physician assistants practicing across 16 states. The executive management team of AON encompasses more than three decades of oncology practice management experience, enabling physicians to focus on what matters most – providing the highest quality care for patients.

The organization provides unique and comprehensive protocols for managing administrative procedures and enhancing ancillary services for its affiliates. AON is able to aggregate volume and attain economies of scale, as it guides its member physicians and practices through the transition to value-based reimbursement models that improve the patient experience and help to reduce the per-capita cost of cancer care.

AON also provides a unique model of physician led, community-based oncology management. With services such as a centralized specialty pharmacy, diagnostics, pathology, fully integrated electronic medical records, a care management team and a variety of financial assistance programs, an alliance with AON ensures that patients' experiences will be at the very pinnacle of cancer care today.
